VOL. 4.

TUCSON, PIMA COUNTY, ARIZONA, JULY 17, 1897.

No. 68.

BRIEF ITEMS.

What about the scare, is Tucson going to have a new democratic daily?

We are glad to see General George Roskrige out again after a severe illness.

Doctor Peas' new office on Church street is about completed and will soon be ready for occupancy.

There is considerable improvement being made on the property on the south side of Church plaza.

Tucson's schools showed an increase of 151 pupils for five consecutive months and Nogales shows an increase of 5 for the full school year just ended.

Deputy Purcell is now busy making out the annual report of county school superintendent J. S. Wood, to the territorial superintendent of schools.

The board of supervisors have ordered 1000 copies of the "History of Pima County," which is being compiled by J. Geo. Hilzinger, for distribution.

It is rumored that there will shortly be a swell wedding in which one of the parties reside at Nogales, but at the license headquarters all is mum—who is it?

Tucson is progressing rapidly in her prices—she has now, (opened by our friend Charlie Goodwin) a saloon where all drinks are five cents—whiskey, wine, cigars, beer, etc.

The board of supervisors have made two appointments. Robert J. Paul was appointed justice of the peace for district No. 12, Arivaca, and Harry Harrison was also appointed justice of the peace for district No. 9, La Noria.

County Assessor Levin has proved himself a worker. Mr. Redondo, Mr. Field and himself have been working every night for the past six weeks, getting the books in perfect shape for the board of equalization, which is now in session.

There is a group of very promising copper mines in the Santa Catalinas, which have been under development for some time and which are showing up very high grade copper. Sheriff Leatherwood is interested in the properties.—Star.

It is now understood that all reasonable obstacles in the way of the establishment of a custom house, at Sasabe and the attendant diversion of the trade of the El Plomo mining district to Tucson, have been removed and that the sought for end will have become an accomplished fact before this month ends.—Star.

Dr. Purcell, W. G. Ott, S. W. Purcell and Chas. Scott went out to the Rillito yesterday afternoon and after about three hours hunt returned with forty-eight cottontails and thirty doves. As far as can be learned this is the champion hunt of the season. It is said that game is very numerous in nearly any direction this season.—Citizen.

Friends of Peter Abadie, son of Mr. Paul Abadie, will be pleased to learn that he is achieving great success at the Faculty of Medicine, Toulouse, France, and that he will graduate from that institution next year. In a letter to his father he says he will return to Tucson after his graduation and take up the practice of medicine in this city.—Citizen.

Good Man to be Dead.

Philip Lashley, executed at Tucson July 9, for killing his brother, soldier, was a man devoid of human mental education—but having the fullest brute animal sense his very actions for the last few days of his life was one of brute bounancy, and when notified of the time of execution, he walked briskly, or rather ran to the scaffold, there without a quiver in his voice he read his declaration of the unfair treatment given him, going into virulent abuse of some of the officers whom he had come in contact, and praising others almost in the same strain, acting jocular with a taint of earnestness that he would return, and haunt Judge Bethune, F. W. Wakefield and others, going so far as to say that if it was in his power in the next world he would have them dead by that evening.

The only act reflecting any humane symptoms was when he patted Sheriff Leatherwood on the back, (while standing on the scaffold) saying "gentlemen be good to this old man, he is a good man and will soon be feeble, so act to him all of you as if you were married to him, and do not let him suffer in his old age." No doubt Philip Lashley would have led the foremost in battle and been among the hottest fire in time of war—but in peace a dangerous man.

The Winner

of one of those $100 prizes got her yellow tickets in this way:

1. By using the tea herself.
2. By asking some friends who use the tea to give her their tickets.
3. By inducing some friends to try the tea and give her their tickets.

One of her friends kept a boarding house, and sent her lots of tickets.

Haven't you some friend who keeps a boarding house or a restaurant, or who has influence in some hospital or other public institution? They need good tea there.

The scaffold on which Philip Lashley was hung yesterday is the same one upon which murderer Casey met his death about 12 years ago, and also upon which an Indian was executed about nine years ago. Lashley's death was instantaneous, his spinal cord being broken in three places. It is said that if he had been ten pounds heavier the drop would have severed the head from his body.—Citizen.
